New Man

OUR READERS

Over 90 percent of New Man readers are males between ages 25 and 54. The vast majority of them are married and are raising children. With a strong sense of commitment to their families, they strive to build an environment of love and security. They have a very high regard for all children, and they feel responsibility to set the stage for their success. The New Man reader is highly educated and has a strong work ethic, which has led to significantly higher-than-average household incomes.

The beliefs and practices of New Man readers are strongly rooted in God, church and community. They believe that many of society's problems can be solved by the compassionate action of people in local churches. While they tend to be very pragmatic, these men believe that the spiritual aspect of life is foundational to everything else. They believe that spiritual vitality leads to ultimate fulfillment and success.

OUR MAGAZINE

New Man magazine exists to "renew men in purpose and passion for Christ." It informs and equips men for success in every aspect of their lives—and provides a God-centered perspective to influence their world for good.

Our format allows for a variety of concise articles and bite-sized pieces of practical and fascinating information to meet needs, solve problems, and improve a man's quality of life. Our main topic categories are fathering, marriage, spiritual instruction, career, finances, faith in action, issues in society, and health. We strive for a positive magazine filled with a variety of useful information and inspiration. We provide extensive reviews of products and services of particular interest to men.

In short, we lead men to get the most out of their lives, make sound decisions, follow their dreams, pursue excellence, and find fulfillment through loving, serving and giving.
