

- ❖ Why don't my parents trust me to make the right decisions?
- ❖ Is this real love?

Heather from California says it well...

"What a blessing CAMPUS LIFE is to me! You guys know exactly what teenagers need to hear about and read. CAMPUS LIFE has been in the hands of my non-Christian friends and they find it very appealing to read and look through. What a great witnessing tool."

The letters go on and on . . . telling us how CAMPUS LIFE has helped teens choose what music to listen to, deal with a friend's smoking habit, and even select a college. After receiving our college guides (each annual subscription comes with three), one teen wrote,

"If it weren't for CAMPUS LIFE, I would have never even known the vast amount of good, biblically sound, Christian colleges out there! Thank you so much for enabling God to use CAMPUS LIFE to be the tool to draw me to a better understanding of the importance of getting a good Christian education. I will continue to recommend CAMPUS LIFE to all those who are searching for a good college to attend..."

Order CAMPUS LIFE now and get two for the price of one!

After hearing from all these teens, you can be assured that the students you care about will find CAMPUS LIFE well worth reading—and sharing with friends. To start their half-price subscriptions right away, just fill out and mail the enclosed card. No need to send payment now; we can bill you later.

CAMPUS LIFE's practical help, biblical perspective, and fresh insight will let you rest assured that your teen is listening to sound advice from a trusted friend. So subscribe today!

A parent of a teen,

Chris Lutes

Chris Lutes
CAMPUS LIFE Managing Editor

P.S. Remember, CAMPUS LIFE is just $9.95 for a full year—six issues plus three college guides, when you order at least two subscriptions. And you don't have to stop there. Give as many more subscriptions as you'd like at half price. Just add those names and addresses to an extra sheet of paper and mail with your order card. For each subscription you request, you'll receive an attractive gift card to send to the teens on your list.

Campus Life

Now available: two Campus Life subscriptions for the price of one! Sign up your favorite teens, and get Campus Life subscriptions for just $9.95 each!

Dear Friend,

If you're like me, the teens in your life are good kids. They're trustworthy and usually make good decisions. But. . .

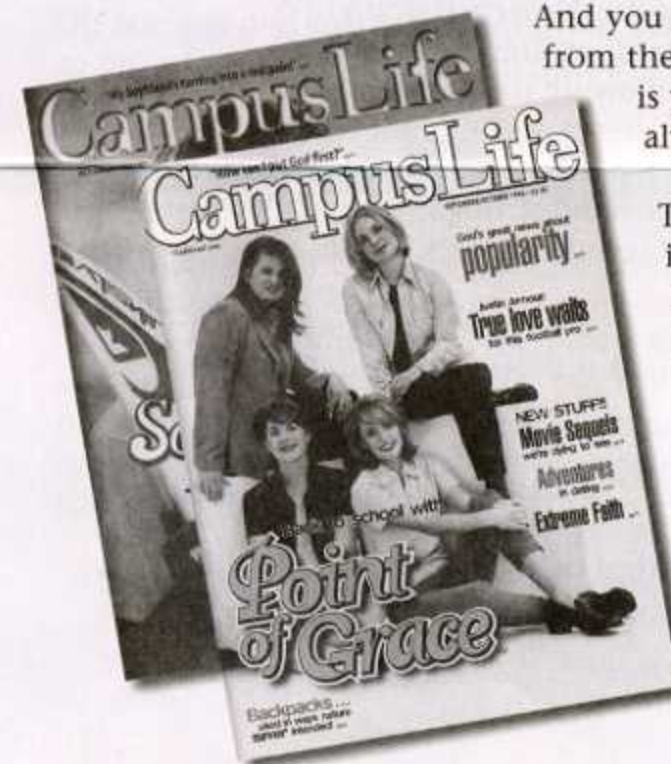

You also know what's facing them. Challenges to their faith, values, and morals. Pressures about sex, drinking, and drugs. Choices about what they listen to, watch, and read . . . who their friends will be and who their role models are.

And you pray that they're listening to the right advice from the right people . . . because the truth of the matter is you know that parents and family may not always be the main influences in their lives.

That's why CAMPUS LIFE magazine has been so important to hundreds of thousands of teenagers—and their parents—for more than 50 years. It has remained a trusted friend, offering solid biblical advice from the cutting edge of today's teenage world.

Now, with the coming school year comes this special offer from CAMPUS LIFE:

Give two Campus Life subscriptions for the price of one—just $9.95 each! Regularly $19.95 per year, you'll save 50% on each subscription—six bimonthly issues plus three special guides on choosing the right college.

Just fill out and mail the enclosed postage-paid card, and soon CAMPUS LIFE will arrive at the homes of the teens you care about. They'll receive 6 bi-monthly issues plus three special guides on choosing the right college. Then they just might write to us like this teen from Detroit, Michigan did recently . . .

"I came home one day and found an issue of CAMPUS LIFE in my mailbox. I started reading and I practically fell in love with the magazine. I'd like to say "THANK YOU" to whoever sent me the magazine..."

Teens say it best when describing CAMPUS LIFE

In twelve years of editing CAMPUS LIFE, I've used the cards, letters, and now e-mail messages from our teenage readers to help me gauge how effectively we're meeting our mission: to help teens get through adolescence with a growing, vibrant faith. Here's what we're hearing . . .

“If you could only see the amazing difference your magazine can make in even one life...

the student who feels worn out and lost reads an article on faith and trusting God and learns to let God lead him/her...

the teen who can't understand how to help their hurting friend and reads "It's your turn," and finds suggestions on how to be a loving support...

the feeling-all-alone-not-going-to-the-big-drinking-party-tonight-Christian reads your mail page and finds that they aren't so alone as a Christian kid and smiles because they are following the Lord...

the confused girlfriend feels pressured by her boyfriend and reads Stafford's advice column just to find that her stand on the issue is right and she has God's Word and strength to help her stand strong...

the "Radical View" column in each issue convicts hearts, guides minds, and encourages souls...

the fun facts and comedy...the interviews and overviews of good Christian people and music...the list goes on. A difference is made in every life that experiences CAMPUS LIFE.

Elizabeth; Caro, MI

Elizabeth found the encouragement, support, practical help, and even humor that each colorful issue provides. Meghan from New York recently wrote us with similar thoughts...

"I think that CAMPUS LIFE is the most informative and interesting publication available to young Christians today. My faith grows larger and larger with every issue that I get. The articles deal with things that are important to teens my age."

If you're wondering whether or not it's a good idea to surprise the teens in your life with a subscription to CAMPUS LIFE, just read what John wrote to us...

"Someone in our family recently purchased a subscription to CAMPUS LIFE, and I picked up an issue out of boredom one day. Now I try to read the entire magazine through when it comes. I find the letters/advice columns are always well-written, giving good, applicable advice to life, and I always finish reading with a sense that it was well worth it, and that I learned something I needed. The humor is entertaining and the feature articles informative. Every time I read it, I come away encouraged. Thank you for your help, companionship, and guidance in my life."

As the dad of a teenage son, I'm always thrilled to hear from guys like John. They let me know that CAMPUS LIFE is connecting in a way that perhaps nothing else is in their life. Vincent from Akron, Ohio, finds that same help for the decisions and choices he faces. He writes . . .

"There are some days when I open CAMPUS LIFE and find just what I have been looking for, well actually I always find just what I am looking for...guidance. I truly think that God is working a great miracle through CAMPUS LIFE. Thanks."

Every other month my staff and I prayerfully create a fresh issue of CAMPUS LIFE that we hope your teens will enjoy and find relevant. From the advice columns to the devotions to the features on Christian bands to the comics and humor, CAMPUS LIFE's aim is to provide a sound Christian perspective for teens' daily living.

Beyond your teen: reaching other teens for Christ

The colorful, contemporary design, great photos and illustrations, music reviews, and hilarious comics could be enough on their own to draw any teen to reading CAMPUS LIFE, but the greatest pull to reaching teens is CAMPUS LIFE's honest answers to the tough questions they face. Questions like:

- ❖ What's so different about Jesus?
- ❖ Can I disagree with the Bible?
- ❖ Are we going too far? Is what we're doing wrong?

