

ChristianityToday

PO Box 11616 • Des Moines, IA 50340-1616

Dear Friend,

It's not too late, but it will be soon.

Your subscription will expire soon, and unless you recently sent us your renewal instructions, we have not received your approval to keep sending you CHRISTIANITY TODAY.

Send your renewal order now, and I can guarantee you the special low subscription rates described on the enclosed order form. We've even enclosed a reply envelope for your convenience.

Our staff of editors takes great care to present you with the very best in Christian thought. Because of their efforts, you regularly receive...

- the most extensive and timely religious news coverage available anywhere
- top-flight commentary and analysis of current trends from a Christian perspective
- thoughtful, inspiring, and provocative articles, written to give guidance and wisdom in a complex world
- a potpourri of topics to satisfy your variety of interests
- a highly readable format
- and much more.

So, please check the renewal term you prefer on the enclosed form, slip it in the reply envelope, and mail it back to CHRISTIANITY TODAY right away. There is no need to send a check with your order, unless you prefer. We will be happy to bill you later.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours in Christ,

Harold L. Myra
for CHRISTIANITY TODAY

HLM:nb
Enclosure

P.S. Please remember that a substantial discount is yours on a two-year order. You can ensure uninterrupted service and protect yourself from inflation by renewing for the longer term.

TDY20200